

Jackson Addison Pearson

March 14, 1961 - February 7, 2019

Jackson Addison Pearson, age 57 of Chesterton, Indiana passed away on Thursday, February 7, 2019 at JourneyCare Hospice at Rush University in Chicago after a valiant battle with melanoma. Jack was born on March 14, 1961 in Chicago to Norma (Johannsen) Mustard and the late Lloyd Mustard.

Jack is survived by his loving wife Elizabeth and his best pal Phinn.

Jack spent 20 years as the Director of Data Processing at a brokerage firm in Chicago, followed by many years of contracted technical writing. He then retired from the computer world and began his photography career, finally following his passion. His photography touched many, and his memory will live on in his photos.

A service celebrating his life will be held on Saturday, February 16, 2019 at 11:30 a.m. at St. John's United Church, 225 West Lincoln Ave., Chesterton, Indiana. All are welcome.

Arrangements were handled by Edmonds & Evans Funeral Home, 517 Broadway, Chesterton, IN 46304. Memorial donations can be made to any of the following; JourneyCare Hospice, 405 Lake Zurich Road, Barrington, IL 60010, MOPS Pug Rescue, 1125 S. Washington Street, Wheaton, IL 60186 or the Melanoma Research Foundation, 1411 K Street, NW Suite 800, Washington, DC 20005. To leave online condolences to the family, please visit www.ee-fh.com.

“ I became friends with Jack the end of 1998. In the past 20 years I'd seen him twice, once in Pennsylvania at a party with him and Liz and again when they both stopped to see me while passing through New York State. But the distance never mattered and we kept in touch. Jack, you will be missed very much and never forgotten. My prayers are with Liz and your family. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ Jack was one of kindest souls I've ever met. I loved his beautiful photos, his passion for life and the deep love he had for Liz and Phinn. Donny and I will really miss seeing Jack on Mackinac Island, as will many others. Rest in the arms of Jesus my good friend.
