“ I'm Mary's (Mom's) youngest son. There isn't one, rather countless special memories and times I was so privileged to share with this incredible woman I am so privileged to call "Ma". She is the only woman who truly loves me fully and deeply, and the only woman I have loved truly a deeply. She did a great many things for a great many people in her life, with most being unnoticed. I noticed, and couldn't be more proud of her. For her, I so wish the many others she did for and touched would've offered her, well, at least a thank you, an acknowledgement of the generous and giving Spirit and woman she is. People like Mom are rare, becoming even rarer every day. And while others may get lost in the hustle, bustle and drama of everyday life, I am fortunate to Celebrate her and her life every day. I love you dearly Ma, but you already know this, because you are still with me today. Thanks to those who showed to express their respects to my Mom. To those who didn't, I'm sorry to as you missed something amazingly beautiful, an experience, a moment you will never be able to grasp again. Fly free Ma! You've definitely earned it!
