“ Patrick was special to me in so many ways, I don't know where to start. I remember his birth and the nurse telling me he was the loudest crier in the nursery! He stole my heart right away with his sweet, determined little face. As an adult, he never failed to surprise me with his ability to bounce back from difficulty and never seemed bitter. He had a huge heart, and loved fully. Patrick was an excellent, animated storyteller, basing them on his experiences and interactions with the world around him. He never failed to make me laugh. He loved playing jokes on you and loved surprising the people he cared about, just to make something more special for them. I'm so thankful I will see him again in heaven, but right now, I miss him. I was blessed to be his auntie Pam.
