“ I worked with Susan at Visionworks for a few years. Susan was one of the reasons I wanted to go in to work she was always so good to me. Susan always knew if something was wrong with me if I felt sad or if I was upset she was always so willing to listen to me and help me work through any situation. We kept in touch occasionally sending text but I wish I was able to see her one last time and give her a big hug. My deepest condolences to Ashley, Kristen, Ben, and Richard. She will forever remain in my heart.

“ Where to start? We've had 50 years of being BFF's & BFA's. How I will live without you and your funny ways of expressing your thoughts, and everything we had, I'm not sure. What I m sure about is that we had a great friendship and many memories.
I will cry
I will laugh
I will miss you every day
I will remember
I will tell people how fantastic you are
I will never let you go
I will still talk to you
I will always love you
I will see you some day.

I will move ahead with life knowing you will still help me through tough times, like we always have for each other.

I will always be there for your family,

Rest in Peace my beautiful friend.

“ Oh Suz. I keep thinking I'm going to wake up from this terrible bad dream. But it isn't a dream. You are really gone from us. I never in a million years thought I'd be sitting here in this place writing this. I don't even know where to start. My brain can't wrap around this. I love you Suzie Q like a sister. We have always been there for one another. Now I must walk the paths to come without you. This is a tough one my "Little Friend" I lost count of the hours you've sat with me at the hospital. The check in's to encourage me. The sobing phone calls that you have received..some of which a hamburger and fries fixed. I am so glad I finally gave in and went for that "cigarette" break all those years ago. If not I would have lost such an incredible blessing in my life. I'll do my best to carry on down here and still try to laugh at our inside jokes and stories when they come to my mind instead of pushing them away in pain. Say hello to the Queen from Dad and I. Oh how he loved you Suz. I found such a good picture of you and Dad. Thank you for loving him back. I'll do all I can to be there for the girls and Ben and Richard and those beautiful grandbabies. I'll love them with my whole heart. Rest easy and walk on Heaven endless warm beaches. Till we meet again my " Little Friend"

“ Susan,

You were my friend when i felt I had no one else. You always had the best advice to give. Always gave me a reason to smile.. I will continue to smile in your memory. As I know you wouldn't have wanted your friends and family to suffer. But it seems almost impossible when we lost such a beautiful soul. You were such an amazing woman. And i will always remember you. When i think about nascar. When i think about Aruba. Or when I wear about the beautiful bracelet you gifted me for Christmas. I will never forget you Susan. Rest In Peace beautiful soul.

My deepest condolences to Ashley, Kristen, Ben, and Richard. She will forever remain in my heart.

“ I have great memories of my sister Susan growing up, she was a beautiful person inside and out. I miss those special times. Ben, I am very sorry for your loss. Ashley and Kristen...I am so sorry, you are so loved, and I know how close you were. Your both beautiful like your mother. I am deeply saddened she is gone.

Debbie - May 15, 2020 at 12:30 AM

“ I cannot express enough how deeply saddened we are to have lost Susan from our lives. She was truly beautiful both inside and out. She was feisty and so full of passion for everything and everyone she loved. Heaven has definitely gained an angel and “super cute” too. She always used that expression and I can hear her saying it as I write this. As I’ve said before, I take solace in knowing that she is now with her mom...whom she missed terribly after her passing. I hope they’re on a warm hot sunny beach enjoying a tanqueray and tonic. Much love to her daughters, grandchildren, brother and her love Ben. She will be watching over you all. Rest in beach heaven Susan. I will miss you terribly.
